You do not have a green thumb? This article is made for you!
 Spring is coming fast ... we need sun, nature and greenery.
 Nothing like pretty flowers or dried leaves to beautify its interior and bring a botanical touch at home.
 Kings of minimalism, herbarium frames are the trend of the moment!
 Rectangular, square, round ... little focus on these wall decor hyper hyper.

After a walk in the forest, you come back loaded with pretty leaves but you do not know how to use them?
 You want to give a second life to your bouquet?
 Choose the plants you wish to frame. It is important to let them dry beforehand in a book to preserve the colors.
 If you have zapped the country ballad, find all our dried flowers pressed for your DIY decoration.
 We have opted for gold metal glass frames that blend perfectly with any type of plant.
 Idea? We add a few tiny dried flowers.
 Pink catmilk, light and elegant.

A red rose, a daisy and two dried ferns.

A peacock feather, symbol of renewal and change.

If you are inspired, you can draw the leaves yourself, cut them and encapsulate them to make your composition. You can also take a blank sheet and use our foliage stamps for a more black & white decor.
 So, conquered? All you have to do is make your wall 'green'!
