Each year the trend changes and the colors on the catwalks, in your shops, on the street and on the beaches change.

So what are the trendy colors for Spring / Summer 2023 ?

Whether it is for your living room, your walls, your wardrobe or even your jewelry if you refer to the colors offered this year you will have it right across the board!

This year head for the Classic Blue Pantone and the theme of the sea in all its forms.

The sea is not only the blue color, in fact everything depends on the sky and the light.

It goes from turquoise to green through gray and dark blue depending on its condition.

The same goes for you, just the wave of blues and greens... take inspiration from algae and corals to give a few touches of warm colors to your assortments.

Come on, we'll decipher all this for you:

The colors of the sea.

Take inspiration from the sea and look at the shades of blue it offers us.

Opt for a pretty classic blue but if you prefer to put more vivid colors the shades of turquoise will be welcome.

Good news for those who love colder colors this summer, gray is more than allowed!

Even better why not mix these three colors, which go very well together!

For the creation of your jewelry and accessories, think of accessories which are still very fashionable and the new beach bags in natural materials.

Here are some creative ideas you could take inspiration from:

- The polymerists will be delighted to know that you can easily make polymer turquoise stone imitations.
- Our leaders will be able to weave these double green sea green earrings and be twice as trendy since the mythical, sacré remains up to date.
- For an easy assembly and a minimalist style, opt for these 2x1, 3x1, 4x1 and 5x1 earrings. There too you will make a timeless course since the XXL is still current.

- Opt for a gray Lincolnton fabric to sew a beach jumpsuit.

The colors of the marine flora.

The theme of the sea doesn't only abide to the color of the water, we will also think of the color of the marine flora, algae, pines, helichrysum.

We will go on shades of green like jade green which is very close to mint, lush green a khaki a little more green than brown and the ochre color.

Opt for scarves, earring or generous jewelry, pearl weaving will also be very suitable.

Here are some ideas for costume jewelry that you could make:

- Bring nature to your ears with these spring-like 3D earring scarves.
- Make an elegant necklace with Indian beads for a perfect blend of these three colors.
- For our leaders here is a beach bracelet with colorful pearls that will go perfectly with the trend.

- A beautiful bracelet in blue glass for a beach jumpsuit which you will find it difficult to part.
- Opt for this elegant blouse in beautiful cotton with gold dots.

The colors of the marine fauna.

The theme of the sea is also all these small shells that populate it.

Corail remains at the head of the race this year but a little darker than last year.

Dark purple is also very popular following the arrival of the autumnal theme this winter.

Fans of cream and ivory will opt for the color sand this year to temper all these bright colors.

- Here are some creations to make with this trio of colors.
- Beins fans this year the pearl shell technique is made for you.
- Easy and quick, these large and colorful earrings will be on top of the trend.
