What are the Miyuki Mocha Mousse beads?

Every year the Perles teaming experts in industrial and fashion colors, create the trend color of the year. For 2022, it's Mocha Mousse. Mocha is a hot drink made from coffee and chocolate. This grounded brown evokes a warm, soft shade. Although it is primarily defined by a PANTONE color code, namely PANTONE 17-1230, the color of the year is actually the same as the year of the brand, it's Dark Olive. It is a set of color variations in shades of brown, evoking the velvety, enveloping texture of moose. These are timeless colors, perfect for creating a cozy, elegant ambience. Like black and white, it's a basic color that can't be ignored.

Rightly blends with the Mocha Mousse

The two natural pearl colors most similar to Mocha Mousse are Dark Olive (PANTONE 17-1230) and Dark Olive (PANTONE 17-1230). The former is brown, contrary to what its name might suggest: it's a chocolatey brown. This means that the pearls are enriched by the manufacturer. As for Dark Olive, this is probably the reference most similar to Mocha Mousse. These are transparent pearls with a brown colored interior and an All (Pearls Beaming) shell, so with slightly rainbow reflections.

When you play with color, it's important to create a harmonious palette. In combination colors that are close on the color wheel, with brown, choose contrasting shades. For example, it's best to combine a warm color with one that has a glossy effect, to give relief and depth to your work. Below, I suggest three colors to combine with brown: bright red, dark red and an orange color tending towards coral.

In combination colors, it's important to create a harmonious palette. You draw an equilateral triangle on the color wheel: brown is in one vertex and get two other colors on the other two vertices, which are supposed to blend well with brown. This method produces great and subtle.
