How to make a polymer plastron?

How to use powder watercolors?

Today Jessica of the famous Youtube channel P tit Atelier offers you a nice polymer plastron with a set of watercolor powder colors and we love it!

Find all our colors of watercolor powder to customize your plastron, follow the technique and presto it is played.

So how to make polymer clay jewelry? Nothing's easier ! Whether you are a beginner or a confirmed, take a look at all our polymer tutorials.

This nice bib is perfect for a party dressed or to enhance a simple outfit, which team are you?

Steps :

Step 1 : Draw your pattern on a sheet using the rigid template for polymer clay (pssst we have plenty of other templates)

Step 2 : Cut a piece of polymer clay then pass it to the machine to flatten it.

Step 3 : Cut the dough with the template and a scalpel.

Step 4 : It's time to have fun with the watercolor powder, take a look at the video for the technique.

Step 5 : Allow to dry then add the diamond effect powder and the golden watercolor.

Step 6 : Thicken your collar by cutting a template back into the polymer. You can do it directly with your breastplate already done.

Step 7 : It's time to apply the transculide paste!

Step 8 : Let catalyze then add the chain using open rings.

We summarized very quickly each step in the writing, we strongly advise you to realize the tutorial with the video of our tutorial, and then it is more speaking is not it?
