How to make a multi-row necklace?

Learn in this tutorial how to easily make a multi-row necklace. This trendy beginner's tutorial is part of the new "Stone, Leaf, Jewels" jewelry collection, a collection with green colors reminiscent of lush jungle vegetation. The Unakite gemstone is perfectly combined with the orange-red colors of the carnelian.

This jewel is worn as a talisman, a lucky charm. Composed of a silk cord necklace with a cabochon with hand engraved eye, and a necklace with fine stones and an eye charm. The symbolism is omnipresent in this fancy multirang necklace.

The rectangular gemstone beads and the engraved eye cabochons are available in a dozen different types of stones. It is up to you to choose your stone, according to your desires. Making natural stone jewelry will become a real child's play.

steps

★ Step 1/4

Cut cm of wire. The total length of this part of the collar is . You can of course adjust the length.

Insert a squeeze bead and then pass your wire through the closed ring of the clasp and back through the squeeze bead. Crush your crush bead with flat tongs. Thread 4 pearls tubes then 2 pearls golden round. In the center of the necklace, insert the mystical eye pendant. Then continue to thread the tube beads and golden washers.

Insert a bead to be crushed then pass your cable in the closed ring then pass again in the bead to be crushed. Crush your crush bead with flat tongs.

★ Step 2/4

Thread the carnelian and gold beads following the pattern in the photo.

Integrate the mini diamond charms at cm

Finish the necklace with a pearl to crush

★ Step 3/4

Cut a piece of silk cord of cm.

Glue the eye cabochon on the setting and add a ring. Fold the cord in half to place your cabochon in the centre. Make a knot on each side.

Make sure everything is symmetrical. Slide in the round beads then make a knot and then the cubic beads

There is a cm between the cubic beads and the round beads.

A little tip to make the beads go in easily, glue the end of your cord. It will be easier to slide the beads.

★ Step 4/4

To finish your necklace, use the clasp with the lace clips. Place a dot of glue in the lace clip then position the cord and close with a flat clip.
