How to embroider a word with beads?

Want to combine your passion for beads with a new activity? Why not try embroidering a brooch with seed beads? Here is a video tutorial to start your first brooch with embroidered word. Here the word "Love", a little wink to Valentine's Day which is coming up when this tutorial is released.

To vary a little from the classic bead embroidery with one needle, we present in this DIY a variant with two needles. Of course, no matter what the technique, just pass the thread through the beads and then through the backing to get a result already! How does two-needle bead embroidery work? On the first thread you will thread beads, then you will place this line of beads around your shape. Then, with the second thread, you will thread the beads around your shape.
