How to make a pendant with glass beads?

Dare to be original by making a pendant, not only with beads but with a wooden support. Today, Puca proposes you to make the Wisdom pendant. To make this piece of jewelry, find out how to set an Athos pearl (whose appearance can be mistaken for a cabochon) and how to combine it with the wooden support Jerry by Puca. An ideal jewel to celebrate the arrival of spring and the beautiful days. It will reveal the pretty neckline of a shirt or a little dress. On the technical side, in this tutorial you will learn how to set an Athos glass bead. For this, find out how to do from the first steps of the tutorial, otherwise, the tutorial Learn to set an Athos is available on our site and lists all tutorials for which this step is necessary. The idea in this piece of jewelry is finally to highlight the Athos bead through the Jerry wood stand painted with the color of your choice. Create a color match with the Miyuki beads that border the Athos bead or conversely create a contrast to highlight it. In order to customize the wood stand, you have several options: painting, bead weaving, and for those who master other techniques feel free to share your ideas in the reviews.
