How to make a pearl bracelet with flowers?

That's it! Have you noticed it too? Spring is here! And it is precisely the arrival of the beautiful days that we wanted to celebrate in our new jewelry collection called "Bonjour Printemps". Colorful flowers in the fields, the blue of the sky, charms dancing in the spring breeze, pieces of golden sunshine... it's all this that inspired us and that we find in our DIY costume jewelry tutorials of April!

For this easy tutorial, I'm making a trendy multi-row bracelet to wrap around your wrist. I made it asymmetrically by pairing different seed beads with a chunky mesh chain with a mix of chunky gold links and acetate links. I chose blue seed beads, but feel free to make a variation with the colors you prefer.

I also added moon charms to my women's bracelet. If you want, you can put other charms for jewelry such as charms for luck, a heart charm, charms letters or a sun charm ... Let it speak for itself, it will be just as pretty!

I also hung a few charms in the shape of small flowers in seed beads to remind the flowers of spring. These are already ready, but if you want, you can make your own pearl daisy flowers with the pearl colors you like. To do so, follow our video tutorial to learn how to make a pearl daisy flower. You will see that the technique is not that difficult.

Launch yourself in the creation of this multirang flower bracelet in seed beads and don't forget to show us the result by posting a photo on our Facebook page and our Instagram page with the #perlesandco.
