How to make a bracelet with beads?

Looking for a new beaded bracelet idea? Check out this tutorial from our designer partner Puca® that will teach you how to make a bracelet with a floral look. The combination of beads gives the impression of a chain of flowers along the length of the bracelet. Created from glass beads by Puca, this beautiful handmade bracelet will bring a touch of color and originality to your look today! To make this creation, you have to weave each flower individually and then connect them with open rings.

For this tutorial, Puca chose Amos and Kos beads in blue and green colors. She also offers a variation with shades of pink and purple. You can decide to make this bracelet in other colors, we have a wide selection of Amos and Kos beads on our site. Please note! This bracelet measures 17cm, so remember to adapt it to your wrist size. If you want it bigger, you will have to add one or more elements. Conversely, for a smaller bracelet, remove as many elements as necessary. If you want to offer it as a gift, you can add an extension chain that will allow anyone to adjust the size of the bracelet to their wrist.

If you liked this tutorial, you will probably like the other beaded bracelet tutorials suggested by our partner Puca. To find them in full (over 200), go to the search bar of the site, type "Puca" then find all the patterns available in the "Create" tab. You'll see that there is something for everyone, you're bound to find something you like.

NB: for reasons of stock, it is possible that some products are replaced by equivalents.
