How to make a Brazilian arrowhead bracelet?

This video tutorial shows you how to make a Brazilian arrowhead bracelet. This beautiful pattern made of 6 colors of thread is a little more complex than the classic chevron pattern Brazilian bracelet. It is also a little longer to make. You can choose to do it all the way around your wrist, or, if you lack the patience, you can use our tip to turn your Brazilian bracelet into a chic half bracelet. You can use half-moon clips or claw clips, as well as a chain and a clasp.

To decorate our bracelet and accentuate its chic side, we sewed a blue crystal onto the Brazilian bracelet. Sewing crystals and beads on your Brazilian bracelet is very trendy. So is wearing Brazilian bracelets all year round. For this tutorial, we chose classic cotton thread. The colors chosen are from a kit. We have a lot of Brazilian bracelets kits. You will have plenty of choice. You can also take linhasita thread. It is a waxed Brazilian thread that will give a more rigid bracelet with bright colors.
