How to make pearl earrings?

Freshwater pearls are the trend this spring! For a long time reserved for an understated look, they're making a comeback in our jewelry boxes. Chic and elegant, they're easy to wear for any occasion, and come in necklaces, bracelets and earrings. Combine them with different materials such as crystal, gemstones or stainless steel to create the perfect match!

Our Rendez-vous nacr  DIY jewelry collection features freshwater pearls in a variety of ways. In earrings, necklaces or bracelets, you'll easily find inspiration for your summer creations. These jewels will go perfectly with an outfit for a wedding or ceremony.

For this tutorial on freshwater pearl dangling earrings, we've chosen a pair of flower trio stud ear rings with a 24K fine gold finish, which are perfect for making on-trend dangling ear rings. With our pretty AA-graded freshwater pearls and Yellow Gold seed beads, you've got enough to make an elegant and refined pair of earrings.

Are you familiar with freshwater pearl grades? They classify pearls according to several criteria. This helps determine their quality and price. If you'd like to learn more about these grades, take a look at our data sheet "The different grades of freshwater pearls".

★ Step 1/8

Prepare your equipment.

★ Step 2/8

Cut a piece of wire and pass it around the shank on the back of the nail.

★ Step 3/8

String three beads, making sure to thread them onto the two wires.

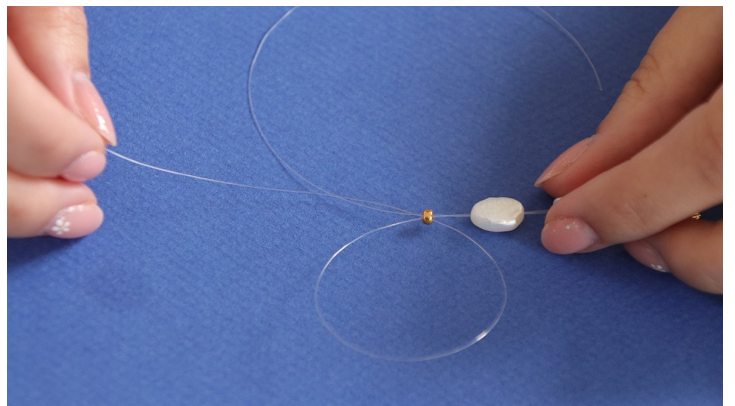

★ Step 4/8

Pass a golden pearl after the freshwater pearls.

★ Step 5/8

Form a loop by passing one of the strands through the gold bead from the top, so as to form a loop and lock the beads together.

★ Step 6/8

Tighten.

★ Step 7/8

Repeat the above steps twice more to obtain three strands. Then tighten the rod at the back.

★ Step 8/8

To close the strands, iron the threads through the white beads, avoiding the gold bead. Then cut off the excess.
