steps

★ Step 1/8

Start by cutting about 45 centimetres of wired thread. This measurement can be adjusted according to the size of your neck.

Slide a crush bead into the wire, followed by a wire protector, then pass the wire back through the crush bead.

Use Crimp beads pliers to crush the bead.

★ Step 2/8

Slide a bead cover over the bead to be crushed and close it with flat-nose pliers, without pressing too hard.

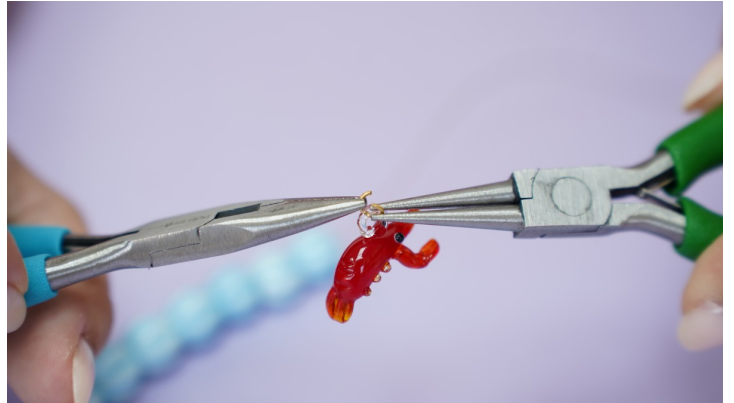

★ Step 3/8

Slide the beads halfway down the necklace.

★ Step 4/8

Using two pliers, open a ring and add the pendant.

★ Step 5/8

Slide it onto your necklace and continue threading the ceramic beads.

★ Step 6/8

Once all your beads have been strung, repeat steps 1, 2 and 3 of the tutorial to close your necklace.

★ Step 7/8

Using two pliers, open a ring and slide on the Lobster Clasp. Add it to one end of the necklace and a ring to the other.

★ Step 8/8

If you'd like to make a pink version of the necklace with the cactus (materials to be found in product variations, under the list of materials), you'll need to insert a flat-headed nail into the cactus. Using wire cutters, cut the nail so that 2 cm of wire remains. Then form a loop using round-tipped pliers. Make sure the loop protrudes far enough so that the cactus doesn't stick too much to the beads when threaded.

You can use our technical sheet: Forming a loop on a nail or jewelry pin.
