How to make a bracelet with glass beads?

To coincide with the launch of the new Samos® bead collection, our partner Les Perles par Puca® offers a new pattern: the Orion bracelet. In this tutorial, you'll learn how to weave two types of par Puca® beads together. Accompanied by golden facets and Miyuki Seed beads, you can weave them together to create a slender cuff bracelet.

In this tutorial, Les Perles par Puca® suggests green, turquoise and gold hues. But as always, we invite you to personalize this bracelet by choosing other colors, as we have a wide choice of Samos® beads and Arcos® beads on the site.

Puca has chosen to add an adjustable chain clasp with a stopper bead. This type of clasp is very practical when you want to offer a bracelet to a loved one but don't know their wrist size. If you prefer the classic Lobster Clasp, consider adding rings to your material. For information, for a 12-element weave, the bracelet measures 17cm. If you're a fan of beads by Puca®, let yourself be inspired by a multitude of tutorials by Puca®. And as we love to see your creations, don't hesitate to send us photos if you reproduce the Orion bracelet, on our Facebook page or by mentioning us on Instagram with #Perlesandco!
