How to make a bohemian necklace with a natural stone pendant?

In this tutorial, discover how to create a bohemian-chic necklace with a flower-shaped pendant in natural stones. This handmade jewel combines simplicity and authenticity. It adds a delicate touch to your everyday outfits and goes easily with a dressier style.

For this natural bead necklace, I chose round, faceted tourmaline beads that fit in perfectly with the autumn season just around the corner. Combined with Aurora pearly beads, they add a refined, modern touch to this necklace. I chose to add an aventurine stone clover pendant, but we have other natural stone pendants on the site if you'd like to change it up. Like the tourmaline stones, you can change natural stones if you wish.

If you like jewelry made from natural stones, I invite you to discover our collection of Lumière d'Automne DIY tutorials, of which this project is a part. There you'll find more creative ideas based on seasonal colors and authentic materials.

If you reproduce this tutorial, we invite you to share your creation with us on social networks, mentioning Perles & Co on your post. We love to see the beautiful creations you make! Ready, set, create!

Now we'll add the pendant. To do this, take a 3mm ring and open it with flat-nose pliers. Pass the pendant through the ring and place on the center of the necklace. Here, between the two freshwater pearls I had placed on purpose to mark the center. Close the ring.
