How do you use a Starter Strip to make a beaded weave?

Our partner Threadologiebylu offers a tutorial to teach you how to weave a lemon-patterned cuff using a Starter Strip. The Peyote Starter Strip is a handy accessory designed to make it easier to get started with your peyote weaving projects. This colorful bracelet, made using the Peyote Stitch, combines elegance, freshness, and craftsmanship for a refined look.

If you love weaving with Miyuki Delica 11/0 beads, handmade creations, and DIY jewelry, this design is perfect for you. With its lemon pattern and meticulous details, this cuff is perfect for adding a summery touch to any outfit. It will appeal to beginners looking to improve their skills as well as bead weaving enthusiasts seeking a new creative challenge.

To go with this pattern, we're offering a video tutorial explaining how to use the Starter Strip—a popular method for starting a Peyote weave with precision and ease. You'll learn how to make this beautiful cuff while discovering a technique that will make your future bead weaving projects easier.

The pattern was designed by our partner Lucie and consists of 140 rows, for a width of 70 beads, using 10 colors of Miyuki Delica 11/0 beads.

Whether you're looking for a Peyote pattern, a Miyuki beaded bracelet, a beading tutorial, an idea for handmade jewelry, or a new creative project, this lemon-patterned cuff is sure to inspire you. Get started on this colorful creation and discover the joy of making a unique, entirely hand-woven bracelet, thanks to a collaboration that showcases our partner's talent.

Once your cuff is finished, share your creation on social media and tag us! We love seeing your creations and are happy to share them with the entire Perles & Co. community.
