How do you make a long beaded necklace?

Check out this tutorial created by our partner Les perles par Puca® to make a long beaded necklace called “Bohème Chic,” a feminine piece of jewelry. This design features a stunning central beaded flower, seed beads, and bicones, creating a look that’s both delicate and sophisticated. You can create a necklace that reflects your personal style by choosing the beads that suit you best.

This tutorial showcases the new Arcos Enamel® beads by Puca®, which come in a wide range of colors. Designed for DIY jewelry enthusiasts, this tutorial guides you step by step through the process of creating this handmade necklace. Each explanation is detailed to help you master the various beading, assembly, and finishing techniques. Whether you’re a beginner or an experienced creator, you’ll be able to craft a one-of-a-kind piece of jewelry.

This project is ideal for expanding your collection of beaded jewelry, honing your skills, or creating an elegant accessory to give as a gift. Its floral design, inspired by bohemian style, pairs just as well with formal attire as it does with a chic everyday look.

To create a complete and perfectly coordinated set, this tutorial pairs with the “Boho-Chic Bracelet” tutorial, designed in the same spirit, using the same colors and techniques. Together, they’ll help you create an elegant, refined, and on-trend ensemble.
