How to set a cabochon with Peyote weaving?

How to make a pendant with glass beads by Puca®?

Do you like Czech glass beads by Puca® such as SuperKhéops® or Arcos®? This tutorial is sure to delight you. Indeed, the famous blogger and designer Puca, offers you a new tutorial for making a pendant, named Camilla. The new feature is the high-quality bohemian glass cabochon designed by Puca. These flat-bottomed cabochons are available in a range of pastel colors. They can be woven with beads or glued with hasulith-type glue on a suitable support.

In this tutorial, Puca shows you step-by-step how to set a cabochon using the peyote technique. For more information on this bead-weaving technique, we have technical sheets you can read:

- How to make a simple Peyote even weave?
- How to make a peyote augmentation and diminution?

See all our glass bead tutorials to make your own jewelry.

Here are the abbreviations used in the step-by-step instructions:

- SK: Super-Khéops®
- A: Arcos® beads
- R3: Round 3 mm
- DB10: Delicas 10/0
- R15: Seed beads 15/0
- R11 : Seed beads 11/0
- R8 : Seed beads 8/0

Please note: in the product list below, the bezel is different from the one shown in the tutorial. See all our brackets to make your choice. The same applies to the cabochon. If you'd like a different color, have a look at the cabochon range by Puca®.
