How to make a 5-row wrap bracelet?

The Leopard pattern reinvents itself this fall! Create a 5-row wrap bracelet with a Leopard miyuki weave, bohemian facets and red Jasper Leopard gemstone, a 1 mm leather cord, thread, pearls, a button and voila! Adorn the loveliest pattern for a wild / rockabilly look! To associate with a casual look, choose one of a white blouse or cream and taupe chinos pants.

The wrap bracelet technique is accessible to beginners and requires little tool, in this tutorial you just need to use a needle. The principle is to wedge the pearls one by one between the two cords by passing the thread that holds the pearl around the cords.
Note: To change the weaving thread during the making of the bracelet, make a double knot on the leather cord and iron the thread is the previous bead. Cut excess wire and put a dab of glue on the knot. Take a new yarn and tie it in as well, iron the end of

Step 2: Thread a new bohemian lace, pass the thread behind the two cords and repeat the previous step. Continue to weave the bracelet using this technique. Use all 4mm copper bohemian faceted beads for the first part of the bracelet. The second part begins with a 4mm brass bead followed by 3 gemstone leopard jasper beads. The composition is repeated 5 times and the second part ends with a brass bead.
